

Oldenburg-Groningen-Workshop on Language Acquisition and Processing

We are happy to invite you all to our annual workshop day between the Universities of Oldenburg and Groningen on December 13. As always, the central theme of the workshop will be language acquisition and processing. The workshop will be an opportunity for researchers from both universities to meet, present their research and discuss ongoing and past projects. As is tradition, we will also go to the Oldenburg Christmas Market after the workshop.

The workshop will be held on Wednesday, December 13 at the University of Oldenburg in room A08 1-102 from 10:00 on:
